Ernst Construction forms two separate business units

Hendersonville, Tennessee, February 27, 2008: Ernst Construction announced the formation of two strategic business units, the custom home group named Ernst Homes, and the remodeling group named Ernst Remod.

Steven Ernst, President, stated, "Aligning the organization into two stand-alone groups will afford us the opportunity to better serve our specific customer groups by being more focused and responsive." He went on to say, "Our integrated Design-Build approach allows our team to work with our clients from conceptual design to final construction. This business model allows us to deliver progressive design, excellence in craftsmanship and a predictable process."

Ernst Homes & Ernst Remod provide consistent and comprehensive personal service with each project from inception to completion making them unrivaled in the market. The passion in which their entire team involves itself with each client experience is the difference people see when choosing Ernst.
